

Impact Consulting Corps

Responsible Leadership and Impact Consulting Program for Purpose-Driven Graduate Students

Join Emzingo's Impact Consulting Corps to gain leadership development training and real-life impact consulting experience for nonprofits and social enterprises in Peru, Brazil, and South Africa.

Our skilled team of impact consultants work with organizations working to bring clean sanitation, HIV prevention, entrepreneurship training, and investing strategies to underprivileged communities.

During our two-month training program, receive top-notch training in Human-Centered Consulting principles that you can directly apply to your social impact project in Lima, Rio, or Johannesburg. Consult for international NGOs, small community based organizations, or local social impact enterprises.

Also undergo our intensive LeaderSHIFT training and personal development curriculum, designed to make you a more responsible, culturally-sensitive, and self-aware leader. Our mentoring and group coaching support help you find your career and life path.

Don't delay. Apply now to get real life impact consulting training and leadership experience! Applications due by August 1st, 2015.
