

Global Impact Fellowship

Social Impact Leadership Program for Purpose-Driven Undergraduates

Emzingo's Global Impact Fellowship (GIF) is a social impact leadership program designed to offer purpose-driven undergraduate students an international consulting internship with an NGO or Social Enterprise in Johannesburg, South Africa or Lima, Peru.

Emzingo has joined forces with Princeton, Notre Dame, McGill, and UVA to offer the GIF Program in South Africa and Peru. This 8-week program combines leadership training with personal coaching, mentoring services, and team-led social impact consulting projects during the fall, spring, and summer terms.

Our leadership and social impact training program prepares students for careers in development consulting, impact investing, micro-finance, global health, and international development.

Social Impact Consulting Projects

Global Impact Fellows work in teams to assist an NGO or Social Enterprise in Johannesburg or Lima to overcome a key strategic challenge. Sample projects include development and implementation of marketing strategies, impact assessments, income-generating activities, and human resource restructuring for NGOs or social enterprises.

Mentoring and Coaching

Each project team is partnered with a mentor from a leading business or consulting group to assist with their project design and presentation. Emzingo staff oversees the development of all projects, and offers in-country logistical support for the duration of the program. Global fellows also attend coaching and reflection workshops to help them determine their post-graduation ambitions.

Academic Workshops

Fellows attend weekly workshops around key themes including impact investing, micro-finance, corporate social responsibility, social entrepreneurship, and environmental sustainability. They also explore the social, economic, and political history of Peru and South Africa.

Travel and Language

Students are encouraged to travel on weekends to explore nearby countries and visit beautiful landmarks such as Cape Town, Kruger Park, Machu Picchu, and the Amazon. Optional Spanish language classes are also offered in Lima, Peru.

To find out more, please contact undergrad@emzingo.com.

Cordes Innovation Award Winner 2014

Global Impact Semester Abroad

Social Impact Semester Abroad Program combining university courses with a social impact internship.

Emzingo's Global Impact Semester Abroad (GISA) is a study abroad option like no other that combines university coursework with a social impact internship in Lima, Peru.

During our semester program, GISA students study at the leading Latin American University, Universidad del Pacifico, while completing a part-time internship with a leading NGO or social entrepreneur. By combining coursework with work experience, the GISA program provides students with a hands-on experiential learning experience, supported by academic learning and engagement in an emerging market.

Program Details:

- Accredited coursework at the Universidad del Pacifico in Economic Growth, Development in Latin America, Globalism, International Marketing, E-Business, and more for up to 12 credits.
- Social Impact internship for 10 hrs/week working with a local organization focusing on public health, education, entrepreneurship, and more.
- One-month optional intensive Spanish Course.
- Workshops on impact investing, social entrepreneurship, CSR, and sustainability.
- Project mentoring by a business professional.
- Monthly group and life coaching sessions.
- Group-learning sessions to build leadership skills through Emzingo's award-winning approach.

Dates:

- Spring Semester: 3/17 – 7/17
- Fall Semester: 8/15 – 12/18
- Optional 1-Month Intensive Spanish Course: 7/2 – 8/15 or 2/17-3/17

Credits:

- Up to 12 credits including 2-credit internship course and Spanish language course.

Housing:

- Home-stay or shared apartments.

Application Deadlines:

- October 15th, 2015 for Spring Semester
- March 15th, 2016 for Fall Semester

Fees:

- $5000 for up to 9 credits and internship sourcing, mentoring, and support.
- $250 per additional credit hour.
- Optional Spanish course: $800.
- Housing: $650 - $950 per month depending on housing option selected.

To find out more, visit www.emzingo.com/GISA or email undergrad@emzingo.com to learn how you can provide your students with this unique learning and working experience.